THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ANNASAHEB M.K. PATIL): (a) No Sir.

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

(b) Does not arise.

(c) For development and productive use of wastelands/degraded lands, the Department of Land Resources in the Ministry of Rural Development is implementing three major area development programmes namely Integrated Wastelands Development Programme (IWDP), Drought Prone Areas Programme (DPAP) and Desert Development Programme (DDP) on watershed basis. Under these programmes, watershed projects have been sanctioned to cover 16.35 m.ha. of wastelands/degraded lands up to 31st March, 2003.

Distribution of Government wasteland, ceiling surplus land and Bhoodan land has been one of the key strategies of land reforms in the country. Since land is a State subject, this Ministry plays a coordinating and advisory role in this regard and organizes Conferences of Chief Ministers, Revenue Ministers and Revenue Secretaries to monitor the progress from time to time. So far, an area of 147.47 lakh acres of Government wasteland, 21.75 lakh acres of Bhoodan land and 53.94 lakh acres of ceiling surplus land have been distributed to landless rural poor in the country.
